

Brandon Partieli

---

Senior Property Manager

Brandon is born and raised in Los Angeles and is very familiar with the Los Angeles area. Working at the Nick Hadim Group of Companies gives him a better understanding of property management. His extensive experience in the real estate field also navigates in finding the right space for a client's needs. Brandon found his passion in real estate when he took a year off from college to better understand his career path. Brandon is attentive to detail, organized, and is team-oriented. In his free time, he likes to play basketball and spend time with his family and friends. Brandon holds a Communications Degree from California State University, Northridge.

