

Kirsty Loreen Parton

Assistant

Kirsty is originally from Washington state and spent her teens and 20's traveling as a model around the world. She wanted to settle in one place and came to LA where she got interested in real estate.

She is hard working, driven and dedicated to learning and growing. Kirsty's commitment to excellence and communication skills make her a great team player. She is excellent at problem solving and multitasking, anticipating obstacles and creating affective alternate plans. Kirsty's resourcefulness and ability to learn quickly make her a key part of the team.

