Administrative Assistant

Nicolo is an LA native who has spent time in Nicaragua, Vietnam, India, and London. His international education has intensified and honed his interest in applied social science and granted him a multi-faceted approach to projects. At Nick Hadim Group Companies he proceeds to apply and grow his understanding of socio-economic relationships in the scope of real estate. Nicolo is an enthusiastic, organized, and creative achiever with a work ethic that is detail-oriented and effective. He is a highly versatile worker capable of accomplishing an extensive range of operations. Nicolo learned Spanish through his participation in international Latin American track and field competitions and charity ventures in Nicaragua. He frequently enjoys traveling, camping, and motorcycling.
